

Ohio Kudzu Bug Monitoring Summary 2018

Amy Raudenbush, John Schoenhals, Ed Brown, Chris Bruynis, David Dugan, Mary Griffith, Kevin Fletcher, Marcus McCartney, Cindy Meyer, Suzanne Mills-Wasniak, Gigi Neal, Andy Michel and Kelley Tilmon

The Kudzu bug was monitored for in Ohio from May 4 through June 29, 2018. A total of 15 PVC traps were monitored weekly in nine counties including, Adams, Athens, Butler, Clermont, Madison, Meigs, Montgomery, Ross and Washington (Figure 1). Overall, zero kudzu bugs were reported from the monitoring counties in 2018.

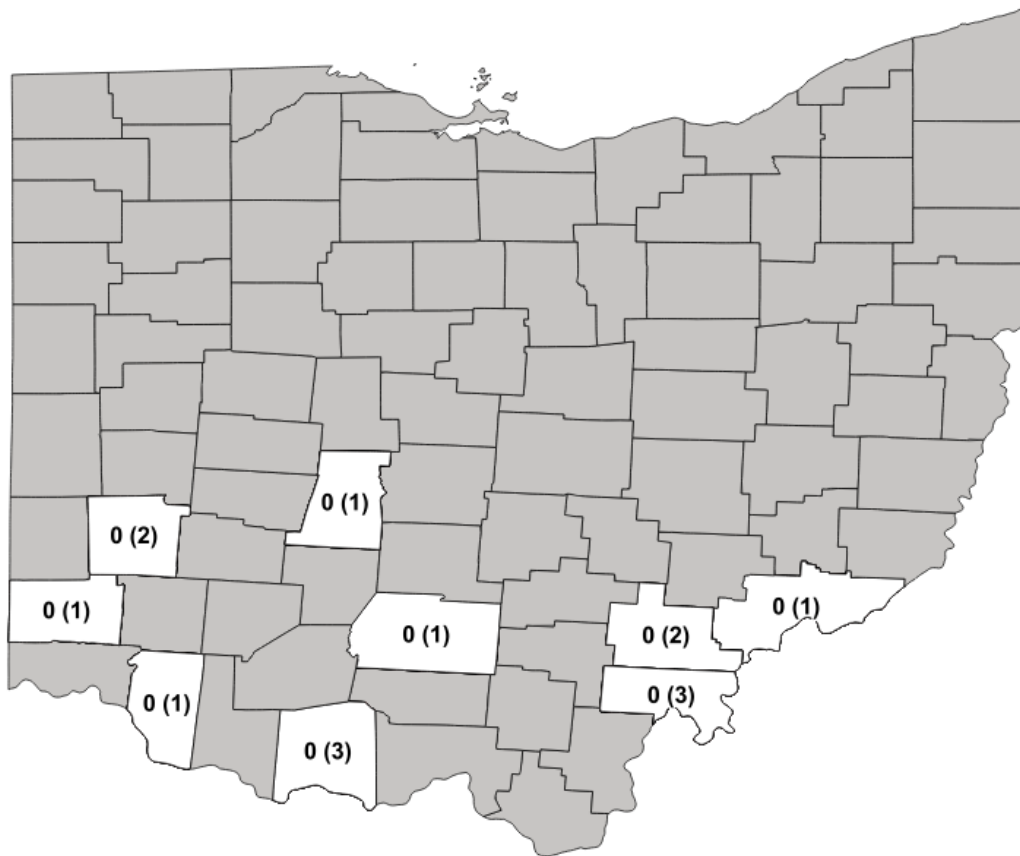

Figure 1. Map of Ohio counties that participated in kudzu bug monitoring in 2018. Number within the county signifies the average number of kudzu bug captured in each county with the total number of traps located in each county in parentheses.